A twilight training course to enhance the role of Teachers and Teaching Assistants in supporting children and young people with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD)

Writing and Implementing Social Stories and Comic Strip Conversations

One of a range of twilight training courses, specifically focussing on supporting children and young people with Autism.

The course may be booked as a traditional 90 minute twilight session, or incorporated in to inset days.

Time: 3.30 pm – 5.00 pm (for twilights, other times by arrangement).

Cost: £350

This Course:

- Teaches how to write a Social Story, their purpose and structure; specifically the use of descriptive, perspective and directive sentences
- Discusses implementing a Social Story, with particular consideration for environmental factors
- Explains how Comic Strip Conversations can be effective in soliciting understanding of social situations
- Demonstrates the use of Comic Strips to debrief incidents

“It was great to see so many different examples of Social Stories, I am sure they will help some of the children in my class”

"I found this session really useful. I am now more confident in my ability to do this"
